Day 2 Lima

Guided sightseeing of Lima • Built on a coastal oasis at the foot of the Andes, Lima has served as Peru's capital since 1535. Your local guide shows you vestiges of the city's rich colonial heritage, including the Government Palace, the Plaza Mayor, the city's cathedral and the 17th-century San Francisco Monastery. Prior to the Spanish conquest, the area was home to several civilizations, such as the one that built Huaca Huallamarca, a pre-Incan pyramid you'll view on your tour. Later, get a taste of contemporary Lima with a visit to the suburbs of San Isidro and Miraflores, which overlooks the Pacific.

Guided visit to the Archaeological and Anthropological Museum • On a guided visit to this fabulous showcase of Peru's pre-Spanish native cultures, see the Raymondi Stone Slab and the Tello Obelisk, along with other outstanding examples of art and archaeological artifacts.

Day 3 Lima • Cuzco

Flight to Cuzco • Board your flight to Cuzco, center of the once-powerful Inca Empire.
Guided sightseeing of Cuzco • In the Quechua language, the name "Cuzco" means "navel of the Earth." The Inca named it when this city ruled over a vast empire stretching from Colombia to Chile. Your guided tour starts at the Korikancha Temple, scene of Incan religious rites in bygone times. Later, go inside the cathedral, which sits atop the ruins of an Incan pyramid. Continue to the outskirts of Cuzco and the Sacsayhuaman fortress, which overlooks the city. You'll also see the ruins at Kenko, Puca-Pucara and Tambomachay.

Number of overnight stays in parentheses.

Birdwatching is a popular sport in Peru. Keep your eyes out for the colorful Amazon Parrot!

Day 4 Cuzco

Excursion to Pisac • At the entrance to the Sacred Valley lies Pisac, a traditional Indian market town. On your way, admire the incomparable beauty of the Cordillera. In the afternoon, visit Ollantaytambo, the oldest continuously occupied settlement in the Americas. The town retains its Incan heritage with exquisitely preserved canals and narrow streets.

Day 5 Machu Picchu

Excursion to Machu Picchu • Catch a morning train for a tour of Machu Picchu, the "Lost City of the Inca." Archaeologists have yet to determine why the city, perched atop a mist-clouded peak, was abandoned or forgotten. Some believe only an elite class of the Inca priesthood ever knew of its existence. You'll see remnants of temples and terraces that have yet to reveal the true purpose of Machu Picchu.

Day 6 Machu Picchu • Cuzco

Morning walk in Machu Picchu • The Inca Trail winds about 27 miles through desert, cloud forest and an orchid-filled jungle before reaching the fabled "Lost City of the Inca." As you hike to Intipunku, you'll quickly understand why it's known as the "Gateway to the Sun." Take in the stunning views from 8,860 feet. Nearby Huayna Picchu, or the Young Mountain, at 9,000 feet, also offers panoramic glimpses of the entire area. Spend time walking through this wonder, complete with fountains, terraced hillsides and livestock.

Return to Cuzco • This afternoon, enjoy a train ride back to Cuzco, where you will spend the night.

Day 7 Cuzco

Free day in Cuzco • Spend your final day in Cuzco exploring on your own. You may choose to join our optional river-rafting trip or go horseback riding in the Sacred Valley. You can ask your tour director for more suggestions.

Optional river-rafting trip • Choose to ride the gentle rapids of the Urubamba River, highly recommended for rafters of all ages and abilities. (This optional is available April-September).
