BP 4400 COMMUNITY EDUCATION PROGRAMS

Reference:

Education Code Section 78300

In accordance with provisions of Education Code Section 78300 and Title 5 Section 55002(d), the District provides community education classes, workshops, and seminars in civic, literacy, health, personal development, general education and career and technical education topics. These classes are designed to provide instruction and to contribute to the physical, mental, moral, economic, or civic development of the individuals enrolled therein and shall be open to all members of the community.

Community education classes shall not carry academic credit and shall be paid for by fees set so as to cover the full and complete cost associated with providing the classes. No state General Fund monies shall be used to establish and maintain community service classes. Students involved in community education courses shall be charged a fee not to exceed the total cost of maintaining the courses. Courses may also be offered for remuneration by contract or with contributions or donations of individuals or groups. All community education activities will be self-supporting. Refund procedures shall be established by the colleges and plainly displayed in all program publicity.
