Quick review:

The 'new' SCFF funding includes two components beyond FTES.

One is related to Success – degree/certificate/goal based funding allocation.

The second 'new' SCFF component is related to AB540 status and financial aid recipients – specifically California College Promise Grant (CCPG) and Pell Grant students.

Quick review:

The CLPCCD is currently under 'hold harmless' status on funding, but that time has run out.

While the FTES component of the SCFF has a 3-year rolling effect (for the largest category), financial aid has a 'direct' single reporting year impact. So we have the power to make faster changes and get faster results.

Quick review:

There are 3 ways to apply for financial aid

- 1. California College Promise Grant (CCPG)
 - short form
- 2. Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA)
- 3. California Dream Act Application (CADAA)

Reflection:

Back in the 2017-18 academic year we had 11,334 students at CLPCCD receive a CCPG.

In the 2022-23 academic year we had 7,880 students at CLPCCD receive a CCPG.

A30.47% drop!

Reflection:

Back in the 2017-18 academic year we had 4,625 students at CLPCCD receive a Pell Grant payment of at least $1 – only from filing a FAFSA.

In the 2022-23 academic year we had 3,620 students at CLPCCD receive a Pell Grant payment of at least $1 – only from filing a FAFSA.

A21.73% drop!

Now:

Now in the 2023-24 academic year we currently have 9,328 students at CLPCCD receiving a CCPG.

A 18.38% increase over 22-23!

Now in the 2023-24 academic year we currently have 4,153 students at CLPCCD receiving a Pell Grant payment of at least $1 – from filing a FAFSA.

A 14.72% increase over 22-23!

Current Efforts:

Collectively both Colleges continue to:

- enhance the Financial Aid Office in collaboration with our college communities
- following up with our students to complete their incomplete financial aid files
- encourage existing students to apply for the CCPG and providing application assistance for FAFSA/CADAA
- tabling at outreach events plus provide financial aid workshops

With that responsibility in hand, marketing efforts

Looking forward

- 1. The new FAFSA is designed to be shorter and easier to use.
- 2. The new FAFSA is designed to create more Pell eligible students.
- 3. The CLPCCD Cost of Attendance is increasing, which typically leads to more CCPG eligible students.

Looking forward –

4. We are working on emphasizing the short form CCPG application to maximize the alternative financial aid applications to increase awareness other forms of aid.
