

Student Centered Funding Formula Project Proposal Draft Rubric

Criteria	Clear and Compelling	Satisfactory	More Data Needed
Impact What is the cost/benefit analysis of the project proposal to the SCFF?	The Project shows positive return over its lifetime and may be expanded to other areas or across the district.	The project will provide positive funding and a benefit to the students.	The application does not adequately describe the benefits of the project, or those benefits are insufficient to positively affect the SCFF and students.
Feasibility Can the project deliver the impact within the scope, budget and requested resources?	Project has a thorough plan which describes how the outcomes will be accomplished.	There is a general description of the effort required to achieve the stated outcomes within-the timeline.	Process to achieve the desired outcome is uncertain or inadequately explained.
FFC Philosophy & Mission Does the project comply with the Philosophy Statement put forth by the FFC?	Project is clearly in keeping with all the values defined by the FFC's Philosophy Statement. Please refer to Philosophy Statement in the application.	The Project generally aligns with the values defined by the FFC's Philosophy Statement.	There is a lack of, or limited alignment, with the FFC Philosophy Statement.