AP 7150 EVALUATION

Reference(s):

Accreditation Standard 3.3

The process of evaluation will support and encourage long-range planning, and will recognize successful performance, administrative skills and abilities. The evaluation process will encourage and support innovation and risk taking that aim to enhance institutional programs and goals. The District evaluates its employees regularly, using clear criteria that align with professional responsibilities and reflect the district's mission and goals.

The Office of Human Resources establishes and maintains current forms and procedures for evaluation. These forms and processes are maintained on the Human Resources website.

Further information regarding evaluation of represented employees can be found in the respective collective bargaining agreement.
